Blazing again. Finished the reverse from 4174 back to the parking lot where the Skyline crosses Wampatuck Road.

Total Hours (# of people x hours worked. Use # of people x 3.5 for trail maintenance events): 3.00

Work Remaining:

Blazing the rest of my trail, both directions. Will take a few sessions, but hopefully can get it done this year.

Other comments (areas of concern, wildlife sightings, trail markings and signage condition, need for re-route, possible encroachment):

There's a short section close to Sawcut Notch path where it opens up through the pine trees. I've noticed that people heading toward Sawcut Notch often cut out early because you can see it before the "official" turnoff. I guess it isn't the biggest deal, but since I was working on the blazing anyway I went ahead and spread some dead branches across the cut-thoughts to hopefully encourage people to use the proper trail. So if you hear any complaints about some idiot putting logs on the trail, it was me :)
