

Houghton's to Great Blue

Trail # 1000-3

By Bob Vogel

Hike # and title - #1000-3 Houghton's to Great Blue

Type and difficulty of trail – This route is difficult if you do it in one day. It is over 8 miles with significant elevation. It takes experienced hikers almost 5 hours to complete.

Distance - 8.4 miles

Elevation – approximately 1750'

Parking and starting point – Park at Houghton's Pond and cross the street to begin your journey. Follow the map by starting at '1' and hiking the number consecutively.

Description – If you hike the entire route in one day, you will see spectacular views, after scrambling up Hancock Hill and gazing out from the historic Eliot Tower. You'll also enjoy quiet wooded trails and steep ascents.

MAP

