We worked on the mapped portion of the trail, which runs south from the middle of the existing trail. We stopped at 42deg12.701'W/71deg08.552'N, where there is a short connector to the Burma Road. The trail continues south, goes under Rt. 128, and ends at Greenlodge St.

Barbara and Bob and I cut brush, and small trees and branches along most of the section which we worked. In addition, I recorded the locations of the ditches that will need to be bridged, and measured the length of the necessary bridges.
